

It's an ark!

from 'Musical Pie'

Words and Music by
JONATHAN WILLCOCKS

Intro

Bang, Saw, Thump, Crash. Bang, Saw, Thump, Crash.

3 Verse

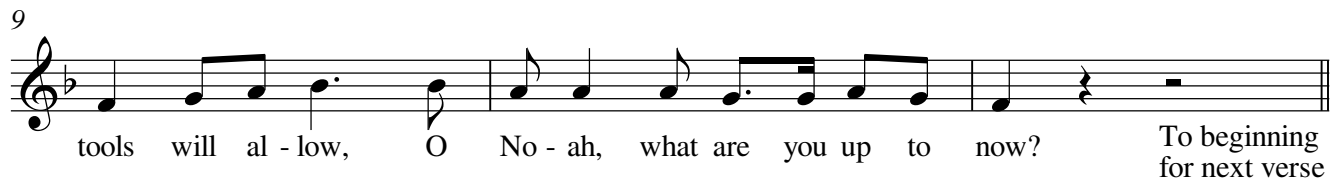

v.1 We're bring - ing the trees which we'll cut in - to bits, we'll saw and we'll ham - mer 'til each tim - ber fits, we're buil - ding as fast as our tools will al - low, O No - ah, what are you up to now? To beginning for next verse

6

9

12 Ending

It's a house for us all, when the rain be - gins to fall, there's a roof on the boat, when it pours it will float, IT'S AN ARK!

17

(shouted)

v.2 We're bringing the nails which we'll hammer in fast, so hard and so deep that it really will last,
it looks like a boat with a stern and a bow, O Noah, what are you up to now?

v.3 We're bringing the paint which we'll slosh on the wood, to cover the cracks so it looks really good,
so shiny and new from the mast to the prow,
O Noah, what are you up to now?

v.4 We're bringing the food which we know we will need for all sorts of animals we've got to feed, for more than a month and we're not certain how,
O Noah, what are you up to now?

v.5 We've cut down the trees and we've sawn up the wood, we've banged in the nails 'til it looks really good,
we've sloshed on the paint and we've filled it with food,