

Children's Concerts
Trustees' Annual Report

Year Ending 30th June 2021

The trustees are pleased to present their report on the charity for the period 1st July 2020 to 30th June 2021.

Objectives and activities

Our first concert took place in 1994, with Children's Concerts becoming a registered charity (number 1143521) in 2011. The charity's objects are to promote the art of live orchestral music and to advance the education and appreciation of live orchestral music among children and young people.

Due to Covid, no concerts took place in 2021

Financial Review

One donation of £10 was received in the year under review.

The Charity's financial reserves are held as cash, to help with the following year's finances. The Charity aims over time to build up reserves to a level approximately equal to one year's expenses. We continue to seek funding in order to be able to increase the number of concerts and broaden the geographical reach of the Charity, thereby giving more children the chance to experience live orchestral music.

We are very grateful to all those whose funding has made the concerts possible, and provided funding to support the cost of coach hire for state school pupils to come to the concerts.

Structure, governance and management

As a Charitable Incorporated Organisation governed by a Trust Deed, our operations are managed and run by a committee of seven trustees, including the founder Elizabeth Gotto and the Conductor and Artistic Director of the Southern Pro Musica orchestra Jonathan Willcocks. The Committee meets three times each year. Three members of the Committee usually attend each concert to ensure all goes well. Responsibility for the children remains with their attending teachers or parents throughout the concert. Venue staff are also always on hand to assist teachers and children.

Trustees (all acted for the whole year):

Elizabeth Curtis (Chairperson)	Elizabeth Gotto
Francis Gotto	James Gotto
Sarah Maybury (Treasurer)	Hilary Otter
Rachel Wardell	Jonathan Willcocks

New trustees are appointed by the existing trustees.

We have registered the charity anew as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation number 1189148 under which it will continue to operate in 2021 and thereafter. The old charity number was 1143521.
